

A. Video: Crash Course – Industrial Revolution

A. What are some of the things which exist today as a result of the Industrial Revolution(s)?

B. What are some arguments for why Europe industrialized before other parts of the world?

C. Why does John Green think that the Industrial Revolution is the most revolutionary revolution of the period 1750 to 1900 CE?

B. Document Set: Effects of the Industrial Revolution

Document 1: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?
Document 2: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?

Document 3: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?
Document 4: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?
Document 5: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?
Document 6: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?

Document 7: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?
Document 8: What effect can you determine from the document? (Claim) Is the effect positive or negative?	What evidence from the document supports the claim?