

Example LEQ Prompts:

1491-1607

→ How much?

Evaluate the extent to which environmental factors shaped native societies before 1607.

Southwest

- agriculture → maize

MISS. RIVER

- agriculture - 3 sisters

GREAT PLAINS

- aridity → mobile

Northwest

- ocean

→ Rank

Evaluate the causes of European exploration from 1491-1607.

Wealth

Competition

Religion

Evaluate the extent to which the Columbian Exchange changed societies after 1491.

Europe (Positive)

- Demographic
- Economic

Americas (Negative)

- Demographic
- Economic
- Environmental
- Social

→ overall, on by location

Context - Exploration Causes

Evaluate the extent to which European colonization changed labor systems in the Americas.

New Labor Systems

- Encomienda
- Indentured Servitude
- Dev. of Atlantic Slavery

Continuance

Spanish adoption of Mita

Evaluate the extent to which European and Native perceptions of the world around them were similar.

Religion (Diff)

Land Use (Diff)

Gender Roles (Diff)

Context - Exploration, ~~Character~~ of Native Societies
Character

1607-1754

Regions

Evaluate the extent to which Spanish settlements and the New England colonies were similar.

Role of Religion (Sim)
Economic Activ. (Diff)
Interactions w/ Natives (Sim)
↳ Conflicts

Evaluate the extent to which religion shaped European colonial efforts from 1607-1750.

Spanish French New England Chesapeake
- economic - economic

Rank by Region → Rank by Environmental Feature

Evaluate the extent to which the environment shaped the development of the British colonies.

Chesapeake New England Middle

Evaluate the extent to which the characteristics of the British colonies were different.

Evaluate the extent to which the development of a trans-Atlantic trade system impacted societies during the period 1607-1754.

Colonial Societies ↔ Native Societies ↔ African Societies

Context = Perceptions

Evaluate the extent to which European-Native interactions from 1607-1754 were a continuation of interactions from 1492-1607.

Continuance → Conflict
- Mestizo
- Pueblo Revolt

Changes - Native Assimilation
- conversions
- intermarriage
- Spanish, French

Evaluate the relative importance of the causes of the Atlantic slave trade.

Environmental Factors (→) Economic
- land, climate → agriculture
Atlantic trade

Shortage of Labor
- Indentured Servants
↳ Bacon's Rebellion

2020-21 APUSH Review

Units 1-3

Evaluate the extent to which cross cultural exchanges contributed to the development of an American culture.

Evaluate the extent to which differences between Europeans and colonists contributed to the creation of an American national identity.

1754-1800

Evaluate the extent to which commercial exchange systems fostered change in the British colonies during the period 1660-1775.

Evaluate the extent to which the Seven Years War changed the relationship between colonists and the British during the period 1754-1775.

Evaluate the extent to which British imperial policies intensified colonial resistance to British rule between 1763-1776.

Evaluate the extent to which religion shaped political ideals in British North America from 1730-1783.

2020-21 APUSH Review

Units 1-3

Evaluate the relative importance of the causes of the American Revolution.

Evaluate the relative importance of the factors that contributed to victory in the American Revolution.

Evaluate the extent to which the American Revolution changed the society and politics.

Evaluate the extent to which the Articles of Confederation was effective as a governing document.

Evaluate the extent to which the Constitution marked a change in the governing structure of the United States.

Evaluate the extent to which attitudes towards the creation of the United States Constitution were different.

2020-21 APUSH Review

Units 1-3

Evaluate the relative importance of the causes of the formation of the first political parties.

Evaluate the extent to which migration impacted America during the period 1789-1900.